Our Mission

The Conference on Practical Christianity, in the tradition and after the example of Charles and Myrtle Fillmore, exists to further the spiritual growth of our individual members, ministries, and communities through our focus on prayer and healing, research and study, education, publication, and professional preparation. Our good and the good of those affiliated with us is realized as we practice the Principles of Truth leading to a deeper understanding of our relationship with God and our Wayshower Christ Jesus.

The work . . .

- Prayer and Healing

The intent of the Fillmore's and the essence of our movement

- Research and Study

Submersion into the metaphysics of Christianity and the inquisitive exploration of the New Thought form.

- Education and Publication

Continuing to study and to learn knowing that intellectual knowledge is one of the first steps to Spiritual understanding and then to make our discoveries available through written and oral publication.

- Professional Preparation

To learn and to pray and to meditate so that when opportunity comes we will be ready.
