Hey, I don't doubt you for a minute.

So what's with the owl?

Maybe you know - I have tried to look up it's significance in Bohemian Grove meetings.
I know it is a common symbol in ancient cuneiform. Maybe it means illuminated wisdom as opposed to blind obedience. Maybe these folk are aligned with those fallen angels. Certainly the Devil has some powers or we would look a whole lot different as a society of humans right about now...I figured this out about 10 years ago.

Evolution and progress should result in less war, not more.
Something pretty powerful is working against mans better judgment, and winning.

Deception is a strong element in Freemasonry. The Masonic Hierarchy intentionally misleads lower degree Masons.

The original Tea Party was started by a masonic lodge in Boston.

I suggest this thread be closed.

Hey dude.. maybe you should relax a bit, ATS is not (yet at least) a tribune exclusively reserved to masons and personally im interested by this thread. If you don't like it, maybe you go have some more "appropriate" reading for you there www.abovetopsecret.com... it might fit better with your (corrupted?) opinions.

No, Magic if it exists is not like electricity and it cannot be compared to a tool made by men. In Magic 1+1 not equal 2. And practicing magic is almost always a bad things since you might change "natural" order of things, that's why there is in all kind of magic (black, white, red, whatever) what is called "triple returns rule" that might get back to you one way or another (or not at all you are a powerfull and very wise black or white magician, but hey who is ? 🙄) when you practice it.

The masons of today do not resemble the masons of 50 years ago. It's an entirely different agenda, an entirely different sect of people. I would say they have downgraded by accepting just about any schmuck into their lodges. Of course there are the higher ranking members who may remain segregated to higher circles within the organization. I don't see that masons these days serve any purpose other than a stroke of the ego for the members themselves. A private sausage fest to say the least.

There is not much evidence showing that they are propagating any kind of Luciferian worship as a whole. There could be kooky individuals who are or were members, but it doesn't imply that Lucifer is given the rank of a deity. In fact masons of the past have contributed a lot to their country and communities. There are plenty of philanthropists who have been freemasons also...

After speaking to witnesses, it would appear that the 'Arecibo' formation was created on August 20th. Although I could roughly make out the binary pattern of the formation from aerial photographs, some aspects were not quite clear enough to discern individual 'digits'. Therefore I visited both formations myself (they are about 200m apart in the same field) on Saturday 25th August 2001."

An interesting interpretation of the 'human face' crop formation comes from researcher and writer, Wayne Herschel. In his vision, the face resembles that of the Egyptian Sphinx and Viracocha, a pre-Inca god. But the most thought-provoking resemblance is to the famous Mars Face.

You can now see a graphical pattern depicted by the 1's and 0's of the code. For clarity I've converted this into black squares (representing 1's) and white (empty) squares (representing 0's). You can see that viewing it like this, makes the actual message a lot clearer, as shown below, in figure 3 (below).

This is where a slight puzzle becomes visible. By performing the steps described above, the literal translation of the original pulses is on the left of figure 3. However, the image printed in a couple of my books is that shown on the right of figure 3. This is an exact left-right mirror image of my decoding. I suspect that this is possibly an error which went unnoticed when the book went to print - although I have checked two books which both depict the same pattern as shown on the right of figure 3.

The Biggest Pyramid in the World found in

The pattern which occurred in the Chilbolton crop field, is the same image as shown in the books (ie. the one on the right of fig.3 and the mirror image of the original decoding). This could imply that IF someone hoaxed the formation, they copied the incorrect pattern printed in a book. Alternatively, I may have converted the original pulses by mapping left to right when converting into a 23x73 grid, instead of going from right to left - which personally doesn't seem correct to my interpretation of the original binary sequence.

If anyone can explain this discrepancy, I would love to hear your comments. However, for the purposes of the rest of this article I shall refer to the pattern physically laid in the crop field. The results are the same because the actual code remains unchanged irrespective of whether it's the original or a mirror image anyway - as the binary coding remains unaltered.

Decoding the original message

The original message was comprised of several 'sections', each depicting a particular aspect of 'our civilisation'. At the top are binary representations of the numbers one through to ten, interestingly showing the numbers eight, nine and ten as two columns. This shows anyone decoding the message that we can specify that numbers too large to be written on a single line can be 'carried over'.

The next section contains the binary values 1,6,7,8 and 15 which indicate the atomic numbers of the primary elements for life on Earth; Hydrogen, Carbon, Nitrogen, Oxygen and Phosphorus respectively.

The larger section of three rows, represents the formulas for the sugars and bases in the nucleotides of DNA. Beneath this is a graphical representation of our DNA 'double helix' either side of a 'straight vertical bar' which indicates the number of nucleotides in DNA.

Directly below the DNA double helix is a small representation of us - humans - with a body and two arms and two legs (like a little stick man). On the left is a binary value of the population of Earth. This can be calculated as roughly 4.29 billion, which is roughly the population of the world, back in 1974. On the right of the humanoid form is a binary code for the height of humans.

Because we cannot communicate in 'human' measurements (such as feet and inches) the height is represented in 'wavelength units'. As mentioned earlier, the actual message was transmitted on 2380MHz. To convert this into a wavelength we divide into 300, to obtain a wavelength in metres. $300/2380 = 0.12605042m = 12.6cm$. This is our 'wavelength unit'.

From the code for the height of a human, we can see that the value is 1110 in binary, or 14 in decimal. If we multiply 14 by our wavelength unit (12.6) we get 176.4cm, or roughly 5'9" - the average height of humans.

The next section is a simplified representation of our Solar System - where we live. It shows the sun and nine planets, roughly representative of size. By moving the third planet up slightly it highlights that something is significant about the third planet from the sun - Earth.

The last section depicts the origin of the message itself - the Arecibo radio telescope, which is the curved structure. Underneath this, as the last two lines of the message, is another binary number. This time it's 100101111110 (split onto two lines in the centre) and equates to 2430 in decimal. Again, using our universal 'wavelength units' we get $2430 * 12.6cm$ which is 30618cm - or approx 1000', the diameter of the Arecibo radio dish.

Differences between the message sent in 1974 and the one received in 2001 roughly 3'4" - interesting, because this would correlate with ET witness accounts.

Below this we notice additional changes to the Solar System chart. The third planet from the sun is not the only one 'highlighted' now. The fourth and fifth are as well. The fifth even appears to be emphasised even more, with three additional 'pixels'.

Lastly, what was representative of the Arecibo transmitter in the original message is even more cryptic and would imply a diagrammatic version of the formation which appeared in the same field at Chilbolton last year, in 2000. This can be viewed in my database, reference uk2000ee.

The binary code for the size of the transmitter is also altered. I'll leave the reader to work out the new value.

(Writer: Paul Vigay. Additions and correlations: Alexander Light)

What does it all mean?

1. The message we sent in 1974
2. The message we received in 2001

- Both the same calculation system
- 1: Carbon is dominant/2: Silicon is dominant (in life forms)
 - 2. Extra string in their DNA
 - 2. They are aprox. 4 feet tall
 - 2. Population around 21,3 billion
 - 2. They inhabit the 3rd, 4th and 5th planets in their solar system
 - 1: Our telescope
 - 2: Something more complex

Almost exactly one year prior to this message, in the same crop, this formation appeared:

This is clearly a representation of their "telescope", as depicted in the 2001 message.

2. Gray Extraterrestrial holding a disc

Sparsholt, Hampshire, England. August 21st, 2002.

The message within the disk was deciphered using the standard 8 bit binary code known as ASCII (American Standard Code for Information Interchange). The cipher starts at the center of the disk and spirals outward counter-clockwise, this is also the same read pattern that a compact disc or DVD uses.

Decoding the Message:

byte delimiter (half bit down, half bit up)

start is center, length of a bit marked above up is binary 1, down is binary 0 first bit after delimiter is MSB (=2⁸)
 ####_##_##_# is the byte above
 binary : 01100101
 the resulting ASCII character : e

One more example:

01000010	= 66	= B
01100101	= 101	= e
01110111	= 119	= w
01100001	= 97	= a
01110010	= 114	= r
01100101	= 101	= e

The Message Translated:

The empty spaces represent the binary number of ZERO and the blocks represent the binary number ONE. Using this cipher we get the following message:

"Beware the bearers of false gifts and their broken promises.

Much pain, but still time. Believe there is good out there.

We oppose deception. Conduit closing. 0x07"

The binary code of 0x07 at the end of the message would produced a bell sound similar to that of an old typewriter / bell sound (Example: DING!).

Exact Construction:

(A) Beware the bearers of FALSE gifts & their BROKEN PROMISES.

(B) Much PAIN but still time.BELIEVE.

(C) There is GOOD out there.We OPpose DECEPTION.

Conduit CLOSING (Ding!)

What is Quantum Jumping?

Discover Why Thousands of People are "Jumping" to Change Their Life
www.QuantumJumping.com

Is this a friendly message from benevolent beings?

The message sounds friendly enough and is just what we want to hear. But I think this is a deception, and you will see why. Those who study or already are in contact with extraterrestrials (or benevolent beings), know that our Government collaborates with a malevolent specie of grays which we know as Zeta Reticulans or Reticulans (because they inhabit a binary solar system known as Zeta Reticuli).

The Reticulans and the Alpha Draconians (Reptilians) have been in contact with our Governments for a long time. The Reticulans are responsible for all the abductions and mutilations (both human and animal), while the Reptilians are those behind our leaders. They are using our Governments to control and enslave our race.

If you are familiar with my articles, you know that almost all my history lessons lead back to the Reptilians and two constellations: The Pleiades and Orion's Belt. The Illuminati always worshiped The Orion's Belt. Actually they are obsessed with it.

(The Orion's Belt is composed of 3 Stars. Two of them are aligned, while the third is a little offset. Image from Google Sky 2011, showing a picture from 2007).

Now back to our crop formation picture:

Notice anything strange? How about the three Stars behind the Alien? They look like Orion's belt, but do they match its alignment?

(Credit: Wayne Herschel)

As you can see it's a perfect match. But what does this mean? Are the alien visitors positive beings from/around the Orion Constellation or is this a malevolent trademark?

It's not easy to draw a safe conclusion, but my instinct says this is another deception. Why would a benevolent specie want to connect a peaceful message to Orion's Belt?

The elites know it is just a matter of time until they will have to disclose the existence of extraterrestrials. But they have one more trick in their sleeves! They plan to present those who enslaved us for generations, as our saviors: the Reticulans and the Reptilians. The greatest killers and deceivers are always presented as heroes, while the real heroes die in obscurity. Exactly the same will happen regarding the alien beings. Our enslavers will be presented as heroes, while the benevolent beings will be presented as our enemies.

Few years ago an ancient painting was found in a cave in Uzbekistan:

(Credit: Wayne Herschel)

A flying disc is clearly noticeable and below it an extraterrestrial being. The ET walks on a black & white floor, one of the most prominent Illuminati signs. In the foreground we can see an astronaut with broken helmet (or some kind of beast?). The astronaut/beast is holding a similar disc in his left hand. Maybe the painter had a vision about the upcoming events? Is the cave painting presenting an apocalyptic scenario?

Debris?

Ancient Cave Painting found in Uzbekistan. Apocalyptic Scenario?

Space Alien

Alien UFO

Next Alien

If the character in the foreground is an astronaut with a broken helmet, then his head is being sucked out through the hole. May this represent a planet without an atmosphere? The ET in the background also seems to be wearing some kind of helmet.

We can also see signs of destruction and a large planet in the sky (about three times bigger than the Sun).

Only time will tell the truth. In the meanwhile, please be careful what you believe! Stay balanced and loving and you will always find the true path.

Alexander Light could you also place like at the bottom or in another section,in a nice organized manner the references of the links?So we can all back up the data the people that come in here like us.

<http://www.martinkeitel.net/cropcircles/articles/alien2.html> for example of the painting.

Question how much information on Project Pegasus?

Also check this lady out Barbara Lamb <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-nF1fafn3Q>

Found Barbara Lamb via Jordan Maxwell that has encountered Reptilians, and that not all of them=as they got stereotyped and that sure would get surprised as we do it here to each other even.

Also heard this guy via AlienScientist on youtube and then by Jordan Maxwell.Dr Roger Leir

Isn't the ASCII code too much human-like? Where do the aliens could know the ASCII code from? And it also requires the knowledge about the latin alphabet. Not only human-centric, but western-culture-centric. So, for me, this disc message is a hoax.

Anonymous July 20, 2012 11:19 AM

Instead of dis-missing this as a hoax due to your ignorance of where we even got our language/numbers from, try and research the questions yourself instead of putting doubt into other people.

Why don't you search the sumerian culture, where aramic/latin writing came from, where the hebrew numeric system and all other numbering systems came from, let me mention first, none of this came from western civilizations, only stolen.

To say that binary, is a western culture centric, is ridiculous. Everyone lives in a system, we all use computers, to not only control every aspect of our lives, though, we think like computers with machine hearts and minds, with little to no emotions in judgement.

Binary? 0 and 1. On or Off. True or false. Light or darkness. ASCII code isn't so far fetched to aliens, that in mind, how the F*%# can you even question how the aliens know of the ascii code, it took them how long to reply?

Instead, why don't you question the government and your teachers/schools on why, they teach, the pyramids were built by MEN carrying stones, over a period of little to no-time, even with today's technology. Imaoo.

You know what is a hoax? Your disgusting indulgence of proof and knowledge, who are you? Your self-sense entitlement of KNOWING what's wrong or right, what's real and whats fake. Once again, who are you? Are you god or jesus? Have you been here since the creation of time, to know what's wrong or true?

So you took one part of the whole story, the ascii code, put no thought to it and prompted yourself to write this reply, so you could undermine the entire post, just because you, yourself, provided your own mind with the stupidity of the question itself, to BELIEVE it's a hoax, only a belief, nothing more, nothing less. Do you understand?

Anonymous July 28, 2012 4:21 PM

You're absolutely right. The article publishes no such evidence.. though, when i use my OWN brain and my OWN heart, to tell MYSELF what to think and feel, i start to question your own statement.

Oh, hey, was the universe here before humans? YES.

Were dinosaurs around before humans, supposedly so, YES.

Was the planet here, before humans? Yes.

Didn't sumerians (most ancient civ.) depict earth as a 7th planet, also depicted the "asterioud belt" and 10 planets? YES.

Were sumerians, bankers or greedy oil profiteers and ignorant sheep? NO.

We are atoms. Matter is made up of atoms. Atoms are energy, boundless limitless energies, atoms are bouned and caged (by electrons. All matter is energy, all energy ISN't matter. What's created matter then? Obviously the energy was there first.. what is emotion, thoughts, conscience?

Then ask yourself, have humans created all of these things? We are aliens, so, to think other aliens have created the universe and every feeling and thought in it, is to think WE are capable of creating such a thing, never, more so the complete opposite.

You don't need to be artificial (body/mind) to be intelligent. That's what computers are for, to tihnk for us, but to not feel.. we don't feel anymore, we only think. We are machines, we are artificial, we are not intelligent, utmost, everything we SEE (matter/artificial bodies) are most likely non-intelligent in the very sense of it.

A middle man, an interplanetary satellitie to recieve information all around the universe, a lot quicker. This "sateelite" might even attract signals like ours, to accelerate the signal a lot faster, to its projected centre for transmission.

Oh wait, are you actually trying to ask, US, people who read this, to explain how multi-dimensional beings who have been around a lot longer then our plantery systems were even formed, have the technology to recieve the information?

Hey freddie, i've got a question for you. Try and answer questions that are relevant in todays world and in your goal of life, let alone things that shouldn't matter to you let alone "baffle" your mind. Do you seriously think your the greatest thinker in the world or the universe to "judge" how these species, do what they do? Your arrogance is remarkable.

That guy depicted is holding the a disc no doubt.

It could be a deceptive message but I don't see why the author sounds like drawing the line between races.

Are all grey's malevolent? Maybe we could use ourselves as metaphor, are all humans malevolent against outsiders?

Definitely not, there are good and bad people just as we talk about ying and yang.

Notice the dots within each side of the ying and yang, it can be bigger; it can be smaller. And it speaks for itself, there are benevolent humans just as there are benevolent greys. The problem is how many.

As to the comments regarding the signal not having the required amount of time to reach 25,000 light years, aren't you basing your assumption off of our current knowledge of physics? Can't there be something which travels faster than the speed of light that we have yet to discover? Or perhaps it's not a matter of speed or light at all, but merely a much more advanced knowledge of the workings of time and/or communication. Also it would appear to me that if we are being "monitored", that there would be objects which are situated closer to earth that would be able to receive the information sooner than it would take to travel all the way to their "planet", given that these individuals have a greater understanding of science, mathematics, and philosophy in general, I think it can be said that it is plausible that said apparatus could transmit the information back to their home perhaps faster than the speed of light? I don't have much of a knowledge base in any of this stuff just personally speculating here. I'm not saying either is right, I myself am trying to find the holes in either side of the argument. Frankly I would like to be able to say that "humans" are the reason our society is the way it is, however I wouldn't be upset if we had some help.

ETs were present on Earth before us, humans. They intercepted the message as soon as we sent it, because they are always close to us.

Reply

Tarantimo July 21, 2011 12:00 AM

So if the message was received by the ETs as soon as we sent it, because they always on our earth, why took the answer 27 years? Maybe it could be possible they did not understand the message, because it was too complicated or they didn't know the right answers instantly?

On the other hand, they told us, their organisms would be based on silicon... that's very implausible! Also it could work, silicon-based-beings would be very slow in their chemical reactions and it's simply unlike for nature to build up inefficient structures of life, disregarding carbon is a way more dominant element in the whole universe.

Reply

Alexander Light July 21, 2011 11:18 AM

@Tarantimo: Probably multiple ET species replied to this message more than once, to different space agencies all over the planet. I'm sure you can guess why we don't know anything about this...

The crop formations are a good way to spread censored messages to the people...or maybe this is just another step in their conspiracy against us. We'll have to wait and see.

Bingo. Some of us know this is true.

whats up March 15, 2012 8:05 AM

You follow the contradicting bible and you think this is far-fetched.. Why is it so hard for you to believe? It's simple probability really. The universe is far too vast for life to not have evolved elsewhere. It's selfish & naive to believe there's nothing beyond our solar system. Every year over 70,000 reports of UFO sightings are claimed. Granted half of those likely have a perfectly logical, of this earth explanation.. however you can't reduce all of them down to mere coincidence. And for the sake of my personal sanity please don't say this is God's way of testing our faith. Someone told me recently dinosaur bones were intentionally placed here by God to test our faith. Needless to say I never spoke to them again. Just kidding. In all seriousness Wake up people!!

Anonymous March 16, 2012 10:34 AM

Anonymous April 28, 2012 7:17 AM

Thank you "whats up"! Finally someone with a brain instead of a religious zealot commenting on these things. Alien civilizations are definitely out there somewhere whether you'd like to believe it or not. Also, they are not merely good / evil beings, solely here to help or hurt our race. Honestly, they have to be here to promote their own agendas, and I find it highly unlikely that they would just come here to grace us with their presences and a few better pieces of technology. Realistically, there is probably something these visitors (if they have visited the Earth) want either from our race or our home planet, which we allow them to have and they give us something in return.

PS: religion is the worst scourge to ever plague humanity

I've been listening to the messages by "Mythi" as translated by "Captain Bill", and in one there is an example of Mythi's writing, which Mythi identifies as being Andromedan. I also just found a thread with photos supplied by the US military at Alta Vista with the same lettering on them, of what they identified as a fragments of a drone. If these fragments are from the same source as Mythi claims to be representative of, then they are Andromedan, and it would make sense as the Greys and Reptilians have been manipulating our military (U.S.) since before 1947 when the secrecy act was put into law by Truman. They are the Sirius B Greys that were supplying the NAZI's with technology, I believe.

Reply

OnceSmitten August 12, 2011 7:00 PM

I believe at this point, that the message of the Crabwood crop circle is from the Andromedans, as per my previous comment. The lettering of the drone fragments matches the lettering of the Mythi connection. The message of Mythi has to do with deception and enslavement and destruction of the human race by the Reptilian/Grey alliance, and their plan for deception during the passing of Nibiru of taking on humans in vessels and underground facilities using the Christ in hologram form to deceive humanity. Peggy Kane and Alex Collier warned of this, and remote viewers sharing their information with the public have stated that there are viable facilities on Mars awaiting transport of humans. On top of that shaman from around the earth have seen Greys and the net, a green grid surrounding the earth that has been identified by Peggy Kane as being an electro-magnetic net holding human subspace entities back from ascension into reincarnation and higher forms of consciousness. Many sources have stated that the humanoid and reptilian populations of this universe have been at war in the past, and that there is at present enough of a balance of power that the reptilians are functioning within the parameters of an agreement between the two factions regarding colonization. However, the reptilians are identifying their facilities on Mars as exploratory, to appear to not be colonizing. Meanwhile, we humans of earth are not considered a viable colony because we are of so many genotypes that our designation is yet to be determined, and our governments have been doing their best to destroy our own planet, so we are not seen, as a whole, as a race ready to be allowed to step foot off of this planet.

Reply

OnceSmitten August 12, 2011 7:11 PM

So my interpretation of the message on Crabwood is as follows; Beware the bearers of FALSE gifts & their BROKEN PROMISES. (Grey/Reptilian alliance, technology "gifts" and use of the human race for experimentation and flesh/spiritual food source)

Much PAIN but still time.(Nibiru or simply our past history of wars and famine and destruction of the human race by these nefarious entities and their human minions, the so called Illuminati). BELIEVE. (Self explanatory).

There is GOOD out there.We OPpose DECEPTION.(Andromedans have been historically about assisting humanity, possibly because we have some of their genetic structure in some of our race).

Conduit CLOSING (Ding!) (Said conduit may be a space portal closing. Ding might mean "Wake Up!")

OnceSmitten August 12, 2011 7:34 PM

One more thing. I have been interested in Narcissistic Personality Disorder for quite some time, and have read a lot about it and discussed it with many people in the psychotherapeutic community. It is the root disorder of all the personality disorders, including Borderline, Anti-Social, Hystriotic, etc., in the DSN IV. It is characterized essentially as inability to experience empathy, (not refusal but inability), which brings and interesting point. The brain of Narcissists is more like a reptilian brain than a humanoid brain. Narcissists are among us in many places and are often in positions of power because they appreciate power over others, yet do not feel the consequences of their actions with others except in clinical evaluation terms, that is how some use of humans affects their larger agenda. The lack of empathy also makes narcissists highly energetic in their activities, as the "sense" of doing others harm does not affect them or dampen their behavior or lower their drive toward completing their goals in that. Note the leaders of humanity and their common characteristics when related to domination and conquest. Mussolini, Hitler, Stalin, Mao, most recently. We have now got the technology to observe our important dictatorial leaders in action through the use of film footage and recordings, whereas in the past we only heard of them in terms of their accomplishments. Several sources have said that the reptilian/greys are trying to hybridize humanoids with reptilian DNA in order to create a being passing as a humanoid, and also one that is capable of ascension, and reincarnation, not just to be able to be considered humanoid in the treaty agreements because the reptilian races, having long life spans of thousands of years, are still not capable of evolving. Some have said they are not of this universe, and come from an earlier universe from an unknown creator. One can surmise that they were ejected from their former universe into ours as it is stated by different sources that they do not know their own origins, and they do not fit into this universe in which the life forms are evolving spiritually through life and death cycles. Lynn Buchanan the remote viewer stated that in remote viewing many deaths of humans, he noted that some went on to higher forms, some reincarnated and some simply went nowhere. I wonder then, if the reptilian humanoid types do not spiritually evolve and that is what is frustrating the grey/reptilian experimental hybridization process? Also people that have encountered hybrids tend to describe them as arrogant or vapid, telepathic, but not empathetic. If I were a reptilian working to breed and new "container" for my species, I would want to eliminate humanoid compassion, since I would have no value of it, and make my creation as arrogant, powerful, and numb to the circumstances created by my lack of consideration of the well being of my "genetic stock" as possible, even though it constituted the larger part of my new container's DNA. If I were a Grey, and was working for this race of reptilians in order to procure possibly a new form of body for my people, I would probably do as they appear to be doing in that, and just ignore what damage and destruction I was creating in order to achieve physical embodiment.

Just some thoughts.

Reply

Jordan August 21, 2011 12:53 AM

Very interesting, but humans, as a race, can be jerks, and I could easily see both of these being elaborate hoaxes.

As for the whole lightspeed issues, funny things happen traveling at or near the speed of light. Any ET race could easily place "amps" at various vectors to boost signal speed, but this is all purely theoretical at this stage in our development.

Also, could it be possible the crop circle solar system represents our solar system? That they're correcting our sun's size, and hinting at slight activity on earth/mars with heavy operations on/near jupiter? 9 planets seems like a strange coincidence. If I recall (might be way off here) jupiter's mass leaves it with some unique grange points (gravity wells, good hiding places).

Only time will tell, but I don't think our government has any connection with the illuminati and any ET contact has been limited at best. Ultimately we're a backwater world and of little significance to whatever more advanced races lie beyond our solar system.

Excellent summation. However - given that codes which would be very familiar to human technicians are being used in the 'Reticulan' crop circle, Occam's Razor behoves us to consider that it's likely that this and all or most other cereology specimins are produced by suppressed EARTHLY technologies. Many of the crop circle images can be found in terrestrial books and have obviously been uploaded into a computer program. Various technologies exist that make the precise use of remotely controlled balls of plasma easy.

There are precedents for similar uses of these technologies, whether they be orbitally based or Earthly installations like HAARP.

Allegorical instances of similar uses of remote control technology include the modern use of drones and the construction of the huge image of the 'Maree Man' in the Australian desert a few years back, using bulldozers controlled by sat navigation. using plasma is just a refinement of the concept.

On the other hand, this is no definitive proof that the crop images are NOT the work of external agencies - 'aliens', transdimensional visitors or time travellers.

Nonetheless, this article is the best summation of the facts concerning these cases that I've been able to find. Thanks!

@new illuminati: I mostly agree with you, however, it depends how we interpret Occam's Razor in this case. Should it be applied directly to crop circles or to the existence of extraterrestrial life "out there"?

I've just spent a week off work, recovering from alcoholism which I've spent studying this stuff. Either of 2 things have happened- The first is that I've gone mad in my detox or the second is that for the first time my eyes are now open. I've read loads on secret societies and had to draw my own conclusions on much of my beliefs, I now know I was correct and this lot slowly brings it all together. Something big is happening and we are all very soon going to be enlightened as to the truth. It's maybe unconnected but has anyone else found the countdown clock on the illuminati.org website?

Great article and images brother! This is truly a great piece of information that is definitely worth looking and research into more! You've always had some of the greatest finds and articles ever and I cannot believe more people have yet to find you, even though you do have a great member base as it sits right now.

Then again, most people are more into what their sports team scored in a stupid game than to look and research into reality (even more than just the Universe, Space & Aliens).

You know, from our talks that we are both on the same thinking wave length and am glad to know that you are here on our special planet in our special Solar System with me and the rest of the awoken human beings of light.

Much love my friend.

"Beware the bearers of false gifts and their broken promises.
Much pain, but still time. Believe there is good out there.
We oppose deception. Conduit closing. 0x07"

This was a message that was sent to us from who knows. From "ET's," if you may. In fact...this message was given to us in 2001...

"Beware the bearers of false gifts and their broken promises"

...Sounds like Obama with his health care to me.

"Much pain, but still time."

NDAA and SOPA? We can still fight.

"Believe there is good out there."

Maybe from a different country or planet?

"We oppose deception"

The people who sent this message are saying that maybe they don't agree with what is happening...?

Oh, my.

Forgive me for my ignorance, but once they sent the transmission to the M13 star cluster that is 25k light years away, how did they receive a transmission back already if it hasn't even reached that far yet? Did someone else intercept the transmission? Shouldn't it take 25,000 years to reach that Star Cluster?

I'm not arguing here but I'd like you to know that the cave painting is a hoax. It was originally drawn for a soviet magazine in 1967. There's no record of the cave painting existing until after then. There's no way an ancient cave painting would show an understanding of perspective too. Regarding Chilbolton Man.....Their eyes are actually as big as the dark space and without pupils. The eyes are all black. These ``beings`` are approximately 4' tall. It was shocking to see them and know that they'd come to ``play with us``, I and my younger brother. My brother was horrified and scared. I was holding back fear so that I could consider what to do about this to get us out of it alive, if at all possible. The elderly neighbors who's house was very close to where we were, yet on the other side of a field fence, were both watching this. The man was near us, trying to reach us and get us to come over that fence. These beings moved with us and so we decided not to get them included in what was happening to us. My brother turned to me and asked, ``What do they want? They act like they want to play with us!`` Seeing this myself I tried to communicate with them with hand gestures but then realized they could understand my thoughts. Their thoughts in my head just didn't make sense. So, I just told them to take us back home, thanks for coming to play with us but we'll get into trouble if we're found outside this time of night. They took us back home, fully awake and aware, and took me ``through`` a solid wall of the house right into my bedroom. There they put me back in bed and covered me up like as if to tuck me in. They were being careful with me and seemed very happy to have met me. There was something along the lines that they had never communicated with one of us before and this was huge for them. When they were standing in that field they wobbled a bit like toddlers. In fact they looked like larger versions of toddlers with big heads and big black eyes, with eyelids that allowed their eyes to be fully open. They'd have to have some high intelligence to use the crafts they came there in. There were also indications that there were those among them who were in charge. It was an amazing experience that I'm still trying to wrap my head around. The neighbors recalled the entire thing the next day and talked with us about it. They wanted to know who they were and what they wanted. I kept passing out from awful head pain each time I began to remember the incident. Sharp excruciating pain at the sides of the head, denote trauma related memories that the mind at that time cannot deal with. It's a self-preservation ability of our minds.

Love things like this.
First you have to believe in life off the earth [I do].
Then you have to believe that they use binary and decimal like we do [at present].
Then you have to believe that their binary code is the exact same as ours - 0x07
Then you have to believe that they have the same DNA make up as we.

I like the story.

Your world is being changed to accommodate us. In time, after these changes take place and the transformation of your government occurs, then we will make ourselves known.
We wanted to make ourselves known sooner. The military industrial complex, greed and deceit of many of your people has delayed our decision to become known.
Mankind must prove to us first that they are capable of a higher vibrational state of awareness. To also know that we are all connected in very basic and fundamental ways that is beyond the majority of human understanding. Humans must come to terms with life as it exists outside of time as they understand it. Many live in an illusion of what the now is and why the now is as we all live in it together.
We are not as different as many think. However, ego, pride, and the hatred we live without. This is what we wait and hope for, that all living beings on earth would commune in peace, as one for the good of all.
Someday, very soon, you will all know the truth. Until then,
Peace be with you.

I am looking at the images of the crop circles in Chilbolton, and I have to ask if I am the only one who made a connection...

The set of circles that were from one year prior, as they are calling a "telescope" (about 1/3 down this page) is it just me, or does this group of overlapping circles bear a resemblance to the antikythera mechanism? Whose inner-workings are in the following diagram:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/File:Antikythera_mechanism.svg

What a lot of the commentators seem to forget is how those crop circles or crop glyphs were made under the noses of the workers of that radio telescope facility. They claim that neither saw or heard anything. It's as if they were made from something or some force "floating" from above. There are no trails or foot prints that lead to those crop circles.

I find that alien face very sinister looking, and agree with the researcher that the message is a deception. The vagueness of the message raises more questions than answers. The message reads;

"Beware the bearers of false gifts and their broken promises.

Much pain, but still time. Believe there is good out there.

We oppose deception. Conduit closing. 0x07"

Who are the "bearers of false gifts." What do they mean by "much pain." They say "Still time." How much time? They say they oppose deception but who are "We?" What do they mean by "conduit closing?"

Lot of words, but not much else.

Why don't they just present themselves. Why don't they just tell us who the "bearers of false gifts," are?

If these crop circles and messages are a hoax, it's very good.

The connection of the greys with zeta reticuli and draco reptilians with oriens belt is something I have been reading. Supposedly the U.S. agreed to work with the Greys and Reptilians back in the 50's under Eisenhower in exchange for advanced technology. Then everything went black and above top secret or "need to know." If special interests from earth took over the project, they are just as sinister and evil as any malevolent aliens. To hide the truth nearly 60+ years. Not even POTUS knows. That takes balls.

I go by the affidavits and presentation and works of Dr. Greer's Disclosure 2001 at the Washington Press club. He tells it like it is. And, it's starting to make sense, but still these ET's and the powers or illuminati from Earth have yet to disclose themselves. We are in danger I think.

I think they the ET's and the illuminati are ready to take over earth through deception. The evidence of the presence of ET on earth is becoming overwhelming just judging from the incredible sightings in 2011. If they have rigged the political, social and economic system from within, pitting political parties and special interests against one another, they have done a masterful job. They have weakened the planet. the big powers are now tetter-totting on the verge of financial collapse. We are cutting back on the military to defend ourselves. And according to Dr. Greer, trillions has been siphoned off for these black projects.

What a merss, no wonder these ET's and the illuminati are taking over. Would not surprise me if they kill off a bunch of us.

I am truly scared.

what is your opinion of the origins, etc. of Rh Negative blood types? Do you agree with many people who claim people that have Rh Negative Blood are Alien/Human Hybrids?. They say that they are "Anunnaki" and I've read several times now that many people also think that they are "Reptillians" too. I have Rh Negative blood and I assure you all while it is true we all are sort of unusually "different" from most people and certainly share the personality traits associated with Rh Negative Blood as well that we are good people against Illuminati, etc.!!! I really want to get to the bottom of this whole subject (issue) as soon as possible! It's been bugging me for a while now and I can't seem to find any definitive answers. All I can tell you is I certainly don't feel "evil" or "malevolent" in any way and I hope that it turns out whatever it is that makes some of us have theses Rh Negative blood types is nothing bad or evil and isn't associated with any negative history or other evil alien species. Dear Kimberly,

The blood running through your veins does not make you think or act in a certain way, it does not define you as a human being. I don't know if the blood types are a result of DNA engineering, but I know that you are whatever and whoever YOU WANT to be.

It doesn't matter if your body is some way or another, because you are much more than a body (vehicles helping us experiencing this physical world)!

Remember that you have free will and you can choose how to think and, more importantly, how to act.

Love, Friendship and Light,
Alexander

The Crabwood Message

In his video, Osborn offers the following analysis of the Crabwood 2002 message.

Beware the bearers of FALSE gifts & their BROKEN PROMISES.

This message is warning us about another extraterrestrial race that is offering us technology and that has broken its promises in the past, which implies secret and unreliable communications between this race and our governments.

Much PAIN but still time.

He presumes that this means that this has been caused by the bearers of the FALSE gifts but that we have the time to change this.

BELIEVE.

A single word. It says to believe that there is still time for us to end the suffering.

There is GOOD out there.

It implies that there are good entities that can help us.

We oppose DECEPTION.

This is coming from a group of entities who oppose those who seek to take advantage of us by DECEPTION ("the bearers of the FALSE gifts").

COnduit CLOSING,

A conduit is a channel, a passageway for people, cables, etc. He feels that a conduit used by "the bearers of the FALSE gifts" is closing. The comma at the end of the message indicates that more is to follow, as in perhaps another message this coming August.

What I need to point out about Osborn's analysis is that he shows the viewer exactly how to get exactly the same results using the same images of the glyph available on the Crop Circle Connector web site. He literally steps you through the process. If for no other reason, this is why you should purchase or obtain a freely-copied dub of this video. This is because Osborn has given us a real gift. He has given us results that every one of us can duplicate!

However, once he began analyzing the decoding of the message based on the original EarthFiles.com article, he used one of the many variants that grew out of the original and defective anonymous EarthFiles.com translation.

The translation he used in his video was:

"Beware the bearers of false gifts and their broken promises. Much pain, but still time. Believe there is good out there. We oppose deception. (Bell sound 7)."

To keep things on an even keel, I'd rather use the original EarthFiles.com translation as reported in my September 7, 2002 article, Is The Crabwood Formation a Hoax? I included a copy of the information that Earth files.com used in that article as follows:

EarthFiles.COM, August 18-19, 2002

The message consists of 26 Words, interestingly the English alphabet has 26 letters.

Another Translator Writes:

An e-mail came on August 19 from another Earthfiles viewer who writes about the "word damage by tramlines" above:

"Maybe that 'EELRIJUE' is the name of the place where it is 'GOOD there.' So, no damaged word, but the name of that place. Maybe a star name? Maybe the name of their planet?"

When you compare the Osborn translation (which you can easily duplicate on your own) with the original EarthFiles.com translation, the distortions are painfully obvious — especially after you DO THE MATH! The following table compares the two by each sentence.

At first blush, the EarthFiles.com message seems to have "honest" mistakes. However, if you walk through Osborn's presentation, what is clearly obvious is that subtle twists were added to anonymous EarthFiles.com translation to obfuscate the message.

The key sentence is "BELIEVE." A 1-word sentence using a word that implores one to have faith in a message. In the EarthFiles.COM article, A SECOND ANONYMOUS contributor is used to muddy this obfuscation even further, "Maybe that 'EELRIJUE' is the name of the place where it is 'GOOD there.'"

Although Osborn used a bogus Internet variant of the original EarthFiles.com message, the corrupted variant also had discrepancies with the "BELIEVE" sentence and the final character of the message.

In the EarthFiles.com translation, the final character is a "BELL SOUND." However, Osborn correctly points out that this final character is a comma . The difference is substantial because a bell sound indicates the end of a message at first pass, whereas the use of a comma as the last character clearly implies that that more is to come this coming August.

Had the EarthFiles.com published the names of the two anonymous contributors of what is clearly a bogus and misleading translation, perhaps we could all have chalked this up to an honest mistake. Yet, the choice of EarthFiles.com to publish an anonymous and bogus interpretation message of this import, reminds one of the opening sentence, "Beware the bearers of FALSE gifts."

One must obviously conclude that EarthFiles.com, in its mad rush to be the first on the web with a translation, skipped any reasonable semblance of due diligence stuff and leapt before it looked. In doing so, EarthFiles.com may have played squarely into the hands of the "bearers of FALSE gifts" as mentioned in the message and let its credibility become the instrumental minion of a clear disinformation ploy to spin a coherent message into conjecture.

All that being said, there is one possibility that Osborn did not raise in his video.

Perhaps the 2000 and 2001 Chilbolton formations were created by the "bearers of FALSE gifts" and that another race is warning us in the 2002 Crabwood formation to "beware" of this other race.

A New Kind of Alien?

Update 03-July-03: Another remarkable difference between the 2002 Crabwood formation and the typical description of aliens reported by abductees are the eyes.

Other aspects such a more pronounced jaw also become apparent when comparing the two images.

The word 'EELrijue' was not a 'mistake' that some have interpreted to be the word 'believe', but it has the intentional meaning of:

'Editable, Executable Library of a multitude' and it is referring to the infinitely evolving Collective Consciousness. The fact that this word was 'corrupted' in the crop formation seems to me to be indicating that for humanity, our Collective Consciousness is 'corrupted' or possibly even 'tampered with'. The 'false gifts and broken promises' bearers are the ETs depicted in the glyph, who are commonly referred to as the 'greys' who made agreements with the United States government for genetic experimentation in exchange for technological 'gifts'. The messengers want us to know that they are the benevolent messengers who also sent the 'Aricebo Reply' crop glyph along with the humanoid face.

2. The Crabwood Crop Circle

The crop Circle at Crabwood is an Alien Face holding a disk.

The Alien face is of what is commonly called 'the greys' in UFO circles

The face and disk appear as though on a television screen from the 1960's

The disk is partly on the TV screen and partly outside of the box

"It is made out of horizontal lines, the width of which is modulated in order to create apparent gray scales. The image is similar to what you see on a TV screen" Eltjo H. Haselhoff

<http://www.cropcircleresearch.com/articles/alienface3.html>

There are three stars above the left shoulder of the Alien.

The ASCII code message on the disk part of the crop circle reads:

"Beware the bearers of FALSE gifts & their BROKEN PROMISES.

Much PAIN but still time.

EELRIJUE.

There is GOOD out there.

We OPpose DECEPTION.

COnduit CLOSING [bell sound]"

There are 26 words in English
Some words or parts of words are Capitalized these are:
FALSE BROKEN PROMISES PAIN EELRIJUE GOOD OP DECEPTION CO CLOSING
The '&' Symbol is used
The word EELRIJUE is damaged and it is uncertain if that is the correct word

Message is written on counterclockwise (right handed) spiral.

- If the sequence (EEL...) is taken as a delimiter dividing message in two parts.
- First part contains 15 words and seem to refer to our LOCAL situation.
- Second part contains 10 words and seem to refer to EXTERNAL entity.
- In total message contains 25 words and delimiter.

Length of "LOCAL" part of the message corresponds to 3/5 of the total length.

Length of the "EXTARNAL" part corresponds to 2/5 of the total length.

Is it just by coincidence, that our "LOCAL" RNA,DNA polymerize in 3',5' structure while the 2',5' structure is suggested on Chilbolton message from 2001 for "EXTERNAL"

Orientation of the spiral is the same as orientation of DNA helix.

It has also an interesting content (by luke Peacock):

If not already recognised- it depicts our DNA together with the precessional cycle.

I also counted the tiny squares that make up the formation. The results revealed interestingly enough... PRECESSIONAL NUMBERS!

1. For the DNA to a 1/2 twist it takes 18 X 12 squares = 216.

2. For the DNA to do a full turn it takes 18 X 24 squares = 432.

3. In counting the total number of squares, 18×72 .
Total= 1296.

72= total number of years it takes for one year of precessional movement.

2160= Total number of years it takes to move one zodiac sign through the precessional cycle.

12960= Total number of years to complete half the precessional cycle.

* So we have 6 structural elements composing the message. Single spacing separates bits, so that it should not carry information. Double and triple spacing together with 3 kinds of bit elements forms the code.

* Message starts after 1 turn and $10(+1)$ bit spacing. This is a bit unclear since from the figures is hard to read where starts the thin part of the first turn. Message contains $501+-3$ elements (counting double and triple spacing together with 3 kind of bit elements). Due to image processing some of characters could be misspelled.

* Let us assign value of structure elements as follows:

- 1 smallest standing element
- 2 2 merged 1-elements
- 3 3 merged 1-elements
- 4 double spacing
- 5 triple spacing

I have analyzed occurrence of different groups of elements for groups of 2 elements up to 5 elements.

Results are very interesting.

Now assign value of structure elements as follows:

- 1 double spacing
- 2 triple spacing
- 3 smallest standing element
- 4 2 merged 1-elements
- 5 3 merged 1-elements

It seems, that this message contains 5 important numbers:

1 , 6 , 11 , 16 , 21

and some kind of their relations from relative strength of peaks

1 0.559

6 0.261

11 0.049

16 0.0796

21 0.051

If the assumption about the generating rule concerning the diagonal elements and about the symmetry are correct, then we are left with following independent information:

1-2 30

1-3 13

1-4 28

1-5 25

Whatever this means this should be the full information content of the matrix.

As a next step I have tried to localized position of important combinations in message.

As important were selected combinations with maximum occurrence.

Here is the list of important combinations for 2 -5 element groups:

2-groups

1-1

1-2

1-3

1-4

1-5

3-groups

1-1-1

1-2-1

1-3-1

1-4-1

1-5-1

4-groups

1-1-1-1

1-1-2-1

1-1-3-1

1-1-4-1

1-1-5-1

5-groups

1-1-1-1-1

1-1-2-1-1

1-1-3-1-1

1-1-4-1-1

1-1-5-1-1

It is amazing how can be such fractal pattern (almost) self extracting. Self-similarity leads us to important ordering in value assignment and also to important values itself. Number of important values is may be reflected even in number of members of the symbol "alphabet". Even more information can be revieled from frequency of occurrence and position of important groups in message.

To me it seems, that such formation can't be made just with "stick and rope" , such precise pattern with deep information content can be drawn only by something with precision of computer . My personal conclusion is, that we have in front of us very, very important message and not hoax.

All ideas and comments to this analysis are welcome!"

"The bearers of false gifts" reminds me of those people that claim peace and enlightenment when they really just want followers and worship. I guess you could call them cult leaders. If you look closely there are MANY of those around.

From: <http://www.starseeds.net/forum/topics/the-crabwood-crop-circle>

We learned from Crabwood of August 15, 2002 that they could use binary notation in modern 8-bit ASCII format, to send us brief text messages in English (see www.physi.uni-heidelberg.de or WATCH). But who would have guessed that they would use binary notation in the sense of an ancient Mayan calendar?

(a) The uppercase-lowercase code from Crabwood 2002. Their first use of binary notation within a Sun-Venus calendar came in the form of an uppercase-lowercase code within the primary text of the Crabwood message. Some words from its ASCII text were anomalously capitalized, whereas others remained lowercase. One researcher commented at the time (see www.martinkeitel.net):

“If we look at this message from a human perspective, we can see that its plain English text is only the surface. It uses very short sentences, with uppercase characters here and lowercase characters there. It uses an ampersand symbol ‘&’ instead of the word ‘and’. It includes extra non-ASCII digits in certain characters. Doesn’t all of that suggest there may be another message hidden underneath?”

Consider for example its first phrase, “Beware the bearers of FALSE gifts”. Why is the word “FALSE” capitalized? Did those crop artists simply make a mistake?

“Beware the bearers of FALSE gifts & their BROKEN PROMISES. Much PAIN but still time. BELIEVE. There is GOOD out there. We oPpose DECEPTION. COnduit CLOSING/”

No chance! Thus in addition to the primary ASCII message shown at Crabwood, its anomalous uppercase-lowercase code gave us yet another subtle message, by a clever strategy known as the bilateral alphabet. In other words, when that series of 25 words is translated into binary notation, where each lowercase word = 1 and each uppercase word = 0 (the same as for ASCII in its third digit), then they provide for a new set of 25 binary numbers as:

Beware the bearers of FALSE = 11110

gifts & their BROKEN PROMISES Much = 11001

PAIN but still time BELIEVE = 01110

There is GOOD out there = 11011

We oPpose DECEPTION COnduit CLOSING = 11010

Thus its first five words “Beware the bearers of FALSE” translate into binary as 11110. The entire 25-word message translates likewise as 11110 11001 01110 11011 11010. And since there are 25 new binary numbers, grouped logically into five sets of five, they may be converted easily into base-32 as 30-25-14-27-26.

Here for example 11110 equals $16 + 8 + 4 + 2 + 0 = 30$, while 11001 equals $16 + 8 + 0 + 0 + 1 = 25$, or 01110 equals $0 + 8 + 4 + 2 + 0 = 14$. Finally, those five numbers from base-32 may be switched into a certain length of time, using the 52-year Mayan Sun-Venus calendar, by one further brief calculation as (see time2007o):

$52 \times (30 / 32 + 25 / 32 \times 32 + 14 / 32 \times 32 \times 32 + \dots) = 50.04$ years

What might be the significance of 50.04 years in the context of Crabwood as a whole? Well, that is precisely how many years separate its date of appearance on August 15, 2002 from another important date of July 19-26, 1952, when a fleet of unfriendly grey aliens flew over Washington, D.C.

From:

<http://www.cropcircleconnector.com/anasazi/WHAT%20DO%20MODERN%20CROP%20PICTURES%20MEAN.html>

“Beware the bearers of false gifts and their broken promises. Much pain but still time. Believe: there is good out there. We oppose deception. Conduit closing.”

In the text above, “bearers of false gifts” could refer to visiting grey aliens, who supposedly promised the US government various kinds of extra-terrestrial military technology to help defeat Russia during the Cold War, but then broke their promises (see www.american.edu). That interpretation seems especially plausible, since the unpleasant visage of a grey alien general was drawn in the same field nearby.

“Much pain but still time” implies that we will all be in trouble soon on Earth. Yet the precise nature of that trouble is not specified, nor its precise time.

“Believe: there is good out there” is a clear appeal to our faith, to help us believe that some extra-terrestrials are spiritually good. By implication, the greys do not fall into this category.

“We oppose deception” may refer to international media organizations who are lying about the reality of modern crop pictures, especially since the entire Crabwood picture pointed toward two radio-TV towers a few hundred meters away.

“Conduit closing” may refer to their means of transmission: sending small robotic probes through narrow passages of space or time, which are then programmed to carve out specific pictorial messages in English or European fields. We showed in Part I of this essay some very clear photographs of those small robotic probes. Many different witnesses have seen them. They have been chased or intercepted on numerous occasions by British military helicopters.

In summary, the Crabwood message shows a clear and direct concern for the short-term safety of humans on Earth. And since those crop artists possess some kind of advanced space time technology by which to see into the future, they would know! Thus the possibility of near-future intervention in 2012 by those crop artists--for example to provide us with pollution-free energy while ridding us of nuclear weapons--

-should not be ruled out. Indeed, such an intervention may have been planned 2000 years ago:
