

gold ; (colloquial) wonderful, marvelous, excellent זָהָב

<http://www.morfix.co.il/en/%D7%96%D6%B8%D7%94%D6%B8%D7%91>

[b-hebrew] changes in 'th' - Below is a listing of lists.ibiblio.org/pipermail/b-hebrew/2004-April/018029.html

Apr 28, 2004 - Arabic, too, should have more phonemes than ancient Hebrew, given ... on correspondences like Heb. zahav (gold) and Aramaic dahav (gold), ...

<http://lists.ibiblio.org/pipermail/b-hebrew/2004-April/018029.html>

Dahaviel, Kahaviel One of the seven guards of the 3rd Heaven.

<http://www.angelfire.com/journal/cathbodua/Angels/Dangels.html>

[Reverend] Paul [a pseudonym] refers to one special male Nordic as "Gold" because of the golden sheen to his eyes. Gold has been involved with Paul since he was a baby in northern Europe. This beautiful male Nordic figure dresses in scintillating body suits or flowing robes and has striking blue eyes that can change color with emotion. Gold is Paul's protector and guide in this life.

<http://www.abduct.com/worley/worley61.php>