the fruits, or outer manifestations exactly in proportion to the poverty or wealth of our consciousness.

To believe in the Good, to affirm the Good, and to act the part of a true child of God, here and now, is to uncover the divinity that is within, and to demonstrate the health and right conditions that are ours in the divine Plan.

*“Therefore,
whosoever heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them,
I will liken him unto a wise man who built his house upon a rock.”*
-- Matthew 7:24

Paraphrasing the magnificent tribute to the Science of Being by Ursula Gestefeld,
one of the great spiritual teachers at the turn of the twentieth century, we affirm that, the distinctiveness of Divine Science is that its eye is “single” --- single to the purpose of existence and the meaning by which it is worked out:

it teaches rather than preaches; affirms and never petitions.

The consciousness of the omnipresence of God befriends without weakening;

stimulates without intoxicating; leads without driving;

does not play upon natural fear,

furnishes ground upon which to walk,

rather than arms in which to be carried;

strengthens impotent feet; feeds starved minds; and

nourishes impoverished souls; declares a salvation for all men;

points directly to the individual and says,

“Thou art an individualized expression of God.”
