Description:

Most people think evps are just voices you can hardly hear and its full of white noise. And you have to use software to make out what its saying. There called Class C evps. I have hundreds of evps like this, but i dont post them as there not good evidence. Here i have posted class A evps. Class A evps are crystal clear spirit voices. Just because most people dont post this type of evp, dont mean you cant get them.

Electronic voice phenomena (EVP) refers to the purported manifestation of voices and sounds of paranormal origin on electronic media such as radios and tape recorders. Proponents of EVP commonly attribute the phenomenon to communication from ghosts or spirits, although others have suggested alien communications or psychokinesis from the living as possible explanations.

I've only ever heard class 3 EVPs so this was a real treat. Thank you!
