Description:

Strange sighting of an apparent giant insect, seen by many residents flying over the city of Astrakhan in Russia. Witness's state it was not a balloon or a natural phenomena. The unknown object was seen several times over a period of a days, but this is the only known footage. The mysterious object floated over various parts of the city for about an hour before disappearing from sight. As always you decide.

Dr, Carol Rosin, I would stake my life on the fact that she speaks the truth. I do not take saying that lightly, think about the nwo and all tha bull sheet that the government thinks people like us will believe. Little do they know, and that will be thier undoing. Ingrates,power and money hungry,inbreeding card carrying facist pigs! Cheers

We'll have to go out on tom-toms
It's too cold
It's ok we're heroes
Next thing you know, Star destroyers and giant space worms

Real UFOlogist know this is BS. We are the biggest skeptics especially on this site. People who post stupid vids like this must think we are as dumb as they are.

Oh no! It has escaped from the planet (well, game) "space Invaders". Now I live in fear, waiting for asteroids and (gulp) Pac-man!

It may simply be that some alien world has evolved or been built in such a way that the creatures thereon are composed mainly of helium or some element of which we have no knowledge and can create craft that are lighter than air :) or, then again, maybe we don't give jellyfish enough credit.
