Ex-Feds & Wall Street Execs Are Going Into Hiding-Why?

Part 1

Part 2

In my role as a talk show host, I have been approached by individuals who claim to have “insider information” about what is coming, and according to these individuals, what is coming is very bad. Most credible sources demand complete anonymity. As a result, I have found myself in a position to try and evaluate whether to write about and broadcast some very controversial information. Sometimes, my insider information turns out to be stunningly accurate as evidenced by the Chris Stevens murder story which was spot on. My information on the Aurora Batman shootings has also proven to be very accurate.

There is a risk in using unnamed sources. Simply, they could be wrong, they could be disinformation agents or they might just be crazy as they are looking for their 15 minutes of fame. It takes a degree of courage to air information derived from confidential sources. Therefore, I want to thank Doug Hagmann for daring to publish his dire warnings which come from an inside source at DHS. I have subsequently decided to reveal what I know as well. The decision to air these warnings will undoubtedly encourage others to come forward. Hopefully, so many “insiders” will come forward that it will become impossible to hide what it is coming from those who are actively seeking answers. To the general public, it does not matter what they are told, for they will still believe that the government will take care of them, CNN truthfully reports the news and Santa Claus exists. As a result, these fools will never know what hit them.

Although the Hagmann warnings differ somewhat from my sources, there are some common threads. One area that Hagmann’s source did not focus on is the dropping out of sight by ex-federal officials and prominent figures on Wall Street. and that is the remaining focus of this article.

The Marrs Observation

In a December 9, 2012 interview on The Common Sense Show, Jim Marrs discussed how approximately 400-500 top level bankers have left their positions and have gone into seclusion. Marrs reminded my listening audience of how the elite have developed seed vaults which only they have access to. Marrs was clearly alluding to the fact that some very bad events are coming and the global elite are aware of it and are moving to meet the threat. My insider sources inform me that the same thing is happening in various federal organizations who have recently retired from the CIA, DHS, NSA and FEMA. This fact is indisputable. I have firsthand knowledge of three ex-fed officials and their families who have relocated to safety enclaves when doing so was very disruptive to their respective family's lives. Increasingly, it is looking like some major event(s) is/are coming and persons with insider information are attempting to remove themselves from harm's way.

Massive Retirements From the Alphabet Soup Agencies

When government officials, from the various alphabet soup agencies, retire en masse, it is not necessarily a noteworthy event. However, when the same officials retire en masse and then relocate to form their own survivalist enclaves, then this is something that we should all sit up and take notice of, especially when we are seeing the same behavior on the part of Wall Street executives.

In my dealings with purported alphabet soup agency informants, I have been receiving some very dire warnings in terms of what lies ahead for America. Given the above facts, it should be understandable why I found the recent Hagmann interview with Rosebud to be a little bit more than interesting. I have had conversations with two insiders and a relative of another insider who tell similar stories of a coming series of apocalyptic events. Much of the Hagmann information, to a large extent, corresponds to the information I've received except for the fact that many ex-feds are forming self-sustaining communities. Therefore, this installment will strictly deal with the fact that officials from the NSA, CIA, DHS and FEMA are retiring/early retiring and going into seclusion with their former comrades in arms.

DHS and CIA Relocations

It is a matter of official agency policy that some current DHS and CIA officials and their families will be provided safe sanctuary in various strategic locations in Colorado in times of trouble. Most people in the know are aware of the underground facilities which lies below the Denver International Airport which has an underground connected railway to the Cheyenne Mountain NORAD/Fort Carson/Peterson Air Force Base underground facilities. The structures are part of the Continuity of Government program developed by the United States government in the early days of the Cold War. However these facilities are increasingly becoming the planned refuge for many of the global elite residing within the United States when all hell breaks loose. In September 2011, the evacuation of the elite to this safe hideaway was rehearsed in the DHS exercise known as Operation Mountain Guardian in which the Denver airport was shut down to commercial air travel except for specific, undesignated planes which were allowed to land in preparation for some staged catastrophe. This aforementioned event is not newsworthy because it has been reported in the mainstream. However, where this even becomes noteworthy to the public is because it is not coincidental that the CIA has relocated its major data collection facilities to underground structures in the Denver International Airport. The implications for residents living in or near the Washington DC Metropolitan area should be clear. The planned obsolescence for the nation's capital is becoming increasingly apparent. If I were you and I lived in this area, I would be looking for a new place to live in the very near future. The previous information is what is publicly available. The following information has not been disseminated but is highly relevant to what lies ahead.

Ex-CIA and DHS Relocations

Parallel to the Colorado being prepared to become the new capital, it is highly relevant to note that retired officials from the DHS and the CIA, who are not part of the privileged elite but who know what is coming, have developed their own enclaves in the Rocky Mountains outside of Denver and Colorado Springs. As it has been described to me that these facilities are a poor man's imitation of the Denver International Airport facilities. The structures are largely natural, but are very well equipped and the resources include a self-contained air supply. My source for this information is a former DHS insider. This is the same insider who revealed to me in mid-2008 of a rift between the old guard of the New World Order and the up and coming new wealth of the same group. His information at that time proved to highly credible then and I believe that this is credible as well.

NSA Relocations

Recently, retired officials from the NSA have relocated to an area in the Ozarks where they have access to underground safety zone which have/are being transformed into mini-villages of self-sustainable protection. Their properties consist typically of 5 to 10 acres for each family, contains a portable water supply, residents are armed to the teeth, have alternative communications that are not reliant on the grid and have years of stored food. My source is an individual who retired from the NSA almost two years ago. His decision to participate in the relocation was triggered by the impending re-election of President Obama which he said will hasten the onslaught of what is to come because Obama's administration fully embraces the destruction of America.

Ex-FEMA Relocations

Recently retired officials from FEMA are relocating to mountainous areas, in North Carolina, approximately one hour from the coast. Their enclave contains the same resources involving air, water, food and guns. These enclaves also include underground structures which are sensibly self-contained and can serve to isolate the inhabitants from the outside. I have two sources on this information which includes a family member and a retired FEMA official who has chosen not to participate in this relocation. The nonparticipant ex-official from FEMA did not seek sanctuary with these groups because he feels that several of these enclaves will be targeted for destruction by the powers that be because of the knowledge contained by the inhabitants in this case of "dead men tell no tales." This makes sense because it would allow the elite, following the coming cataclysms, to rewrite history in their own version without any contradiction from knowledgeable individuals that know what really has gone on. This insider knowledge is a threat which would serve as an obstacle to the new truth. Personally, I think this view has a great deal of merit.

Conclusion

I fully realize that unnamed sources don't carry as much credibility as documented sources. However, as similar stories make their way into the national discussion, it might be wise to take a closer look. I don't ask that the facts presented here be taken at face value, I encourage everyone to do their own research and if you find credibility to the claims made in the following parts in this series, it would be prudent to take the proper precautions.

What is coming, you ask? That will be the topic of Part Two.

You hit the nail on the head Dave! Jesse Ventura talked about the Ozark and Denver Airport bunkers before on his show Conspiracy Theory. I'm so glad I found you since you appeared on The Pete Santilli Show a few months ago talking about the BP Oil spill and the Bilderberg elitist oil executive believed to be behind it all. Keep up the great work, I'll try to pay attention to your radio show and website more often. Take Care 😊

I hate to tell you this but it's a load of bunk based on a lot of old books that has more to do with astrotheology and mythology than real events. The whole thing has been misinterpreted as being real when it is nothing more than a fairy tale based on the positions of the stars and planets in the sky who were personified as real people,

I went out at night to watch the stars at midnight of Dec 20th.... or you could say 12:01 am of Dec 21 and what I saw gave it all away. You see the moon was exactly due west and it looked like an eyeball.... also known as one of the eyes of Horus. You would have to read up on the 2 eyes of Horus to understand what I am talking about but basically just as the sun rises the moon is one of the eyeballs and is positioned over Sirius with the moon being the eyeball and Sirius being the socket and the sun is the other eyeball which is positioned in Orion which is the other eye socket. Thus you have the 2 eyes of Horus coming into view. in a rare astronomical event that only repeats this exact position every 25,920 years. In ancient times it was counted as day one in a calender called the great year which marks the 25,920 years of precession.

There is clear evidence of this when you decode the man in the middle of the Mayan calender round which is basically showing Orion the hunter or you could say the sun in Orion. The symbol around the man is the same symbol as the Illuminati compass and square which is also the symbol for Orion. One just has to look carefully in Orion and you can see the compass and square symbol there and this symbol clearly represents Orion. The same man is also described in the book of Ezekiel ” they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle”... the man in the middle is Orion the Hunter and when you view Orion from the southern hemisphere,,, the lion is on the right {constellation Leo} and the ox is on the left {constellation Taurus} and the Eagle is above which is the constellation Signus X3 known at the time as a swan which at the time was the position of the North pole star.. the part of the sky that never moves and everything in the sky revolves around that spot. The wheel within a wheel was merely representing the whole zodiac and not a UFO as some people have poorly misinterpreted this text.

You may ask why this is so significant?... well its because the stars move backwards against the sky and if you were to plant a cross in the ground and line it up with the sun in Orion on Dec 21 it would go out by one degree every 72 years and since there are 360 degrees in a complete circle it would take $360 \times 72 = 25,920$ years for the sun to come back to the same spot and line up exactly in the same position. .So now you know the real truth as to what this is all about. It's a calender and nothing more.

Those fools who are hiding in caves and going to get a rude awakening because nothing is going to happen. They have been suckered into believing in someone elses false beliefs based on extremely poor misinterpretations of ancient texts that have been blown out of proportion by too many stupid people who have been brainwashed since birth into believing in something that is not real. People need to wake up and realize that just because someone writes something in a book that he truly believes in does not make it real... it only represents the views of the writer which in this case turned out to be completely mistranslated.

The problem is we are conditioned since birth to believe in what is written in books to be fact when most of the time they are not.

So the next time someone tries to tell you the world is going to end just give them the middle finger and stop being a sucker.

I find the whole of your article to be believable. But then, I find the whole of our Father's Word, the Holy Bible, to be Perfectly believable...for therein is contained, in amazingly accurate detail, the True history of mankind. Past, present and future. At Luke 21:25-28 we find detailed description of signs in the heavens, the heavenly bodies being shaken, nations in perplexity and anguish over the increased agitation of the oceans (tsunami). We are told that when we see the beginning of these things, we are to STAND UP and LIFT UP our heads, for our redemption draws near! Christ also tells us that 'He that would save his own life will lose it, and he that would give up his life for Christ's sake, will save it.' It only stands to reason that those with the blood of the innocent red upon their hands, whose way of life precludes Greater Understanding, would 'flee to their bunkers to save their souls'. A coward is as a coward does, and this old earth has certainly not missed out on her share. Soon enough the powers that be will see the sign of Christ's return in the heavens, (if they haven't already!) and they will beat themselves in grief and try and hide in caves, dens, and yes, bunkers. All just as foretold.

And they will say to the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!" Rev. 6:16

Who is any man to say that it is too late for such ones to prostrate themselves upon the ground and plea with their Creator for forgiveness in Christ's name instead of hiding among the rocks? God said that he will forgive all manner of iniquity on that day, save one, blasphemy against His Holy Spirit. Hiding under mountains, I can assure such ones, only guarantees one 'hell' of a hot tomb. God Himself, said that the mountains are no more, and the islands have fled away....where is the only place of refuge for mountains? Back under the crust from whence they came! Yes, mountains/islands will sink soon enough, when Isaiah 24:20 is fulfilled and the earth's crust undergoes great cataclysm.

http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/ciencia/ciencia_earthchanges31.htm

Christ IS coming. He is coming on the clouds of HEAVEN not earth. And as one irrevocably blessed to have witnessed such a marvel, I will tell you that it was the most fantastic dream I've ever had.....I was standing on my back patio and glanced up to the south east and noticed a rather dense pattern of stars. I could not remember ever seeing such a dense 'constellation' in that part of the sky before. As I scrutinized the pattern, I began to notice the group of distant stars slowly changing shape, with a faint purplish haze around them. The stars were much more golden in color than any other's I'd seen, with a very bright white one, front and center. Suddenly the realization of what I was looking at, rocked me to the seat of my soul! I awoke, went to the computer and googled: “Nebulae” and soon found one that looked very similar to the purple ‘cloud’ surrounding the myriad Angels returning with Christ to earth. They appeared to be moving slow enough for the world to turn a few times, giving ‘every eye’ multiple chances to see Him and His Army!

Blessings in Christ

An engineered global economic collapse that’s what. The elites will go underground why you lot on top kill each other. They know you will turn on each other for survival but just to make sure they will take most of your effective weapons away from you so you cannot mount a serious attempt at taking over their power by an organised well armed revolt. They cover all the bases, they are not stupid.

Let us face the fact. Life that originated from the animal is a dead end. The only reason we are alive today is because in the past we didn’t have the weapons to destroy ourselves!

These communities, where former agency employees are taking refuge, are not safe. If the ruling elite does not take them out, there are plenty people (the unwashed masses) who will. What was their crime? Putting millions of other Americans at risk, while saving themselves and their families, by their silence. They have no moral compass and will eventually pay for that shortcoming. Are their personal lives and the lives of their loved ones, so much more valuable than the lives of those they obviously consider inferior? They shall see!

Read the Kolbrin bible on ‘The Destroyer’ (Egyptian texts) and on ‘The Frightener’ (Celtic texts), Isaiah 13 and 24, Malachi 4, Matthew 24 “there will not be one stone left upon another” and you will get the picture.

you know how i know this isn't true? because a bunch of idiot bible-thumpers believe it. you have to figure that if people who are too stupid to distinguish reality from mythology and fairy tales buy into it, it's obviously a load of horse shit. do the math; simple, really.

in response to mike's comments above:

do not think for 1 second that the alphabet agencies got slickered into believing some ancient texts or old mayan calendars. (As if the CIA, et al, are that stupid, get real) this has to do with our solar system travelling through space and what we encounter from time to time. You have heard of meteors and asteroids, right? You are aware of the carrington event from 1859, right? You are aware of what the dark side of the moon looks like, right? Stop patting yourself on the back and start researching remote viewing and cliff high's work, and start preparing. If you think the alphabet agents and others are disappearing because they are merely anti-social, it is you who needs to wake up.

The Evil New World Order Old Guard (E.N.W.O.O.G.) of Her Right Horrible (H.R.H.) Queen Maqqi Thatcher and the Downright Repulsive Evil Entity, Henry Kissinger (Dr. Dree) will assassinate all of the Soft and Fuzzy New World Order (So.Fu.Ne.Wor.) and their families before they get to where they're going. They are the bigger threat compared to the rest of us armed with broom handles.

All of this sounds so un-American and too Old World. What would President Grant and President Teddy Roosevelt have done about these scoundrals?

Our family has been aware of this brief event that is coming, which causes much destruction, and moved away from the coast lines some years back. The earth changes that were described as seven years of plenty followed by seven years of famine are just coming to an end. Our distribution system if the midwest has a drought and a crop fails for instance brings more supplies from afar. This passage that is coming and is causing the Elite Exodus is very survivable but it will take some planning to live sustainably afterwards. Look at the site <http://www.poleshift.ning.com> as it has the most complete explanation of what FEMA knows. Read the Safe Locations document that gives the where when and how and cuts through the mis information. This is an astrophysical event that has repeated every 3600 years through out our history and mankind has always survived before.

I will call this “story” what it is: absolute bullshit.

Hodges is NOT known for accuracy. Instead, he uses conjecture, “unnamed sources” and “anonymity” as “evidence”. There are several major flaws in this “story”, which is pure fabrication.

A) I have family members in DHS by marriage. Nothing Hodges claims is going on. In fact, we just met with them for a family affair only a few weeks ago.

B) I am a major seller of preparedness items, specifically food. Sales are at an all-time low and have been for many months. There has been a massive decrease in sales (85%) over last year. There is no “rush for the exits” as Hodges claims.

C) Year end retirements are normal.

D) Retirees DO move to cheaper places to live. End of story.

I have yet to find anything Hodges says to be accurate, truthful, timely or valid. Not just in this story either, but in past posts. His intention it seems is to gain “credibility” among the easily fooled while increasing his own popularity.

This is despicable. Spreading false rumors, unsubstantiated claims and missing evidence “as evidence” is the sign of a deluded man desperately seeking attention. Don’t fall for it. Look for the EVIDENCE people. Anybody that does not provide EVIDENCE is simply full of shit.

EDITOR’S NOTE

I usually let the profance tirades and inane ramblings, without substantiation, speak for themselves. But I wanted to take the time to show the world what a troll looks and sounds like. First, we have firsthand knowledge of 2 intel families who have already moved and onemore who is preparing-

Second, nobody said anything about year end retirements- not the case, never stated-

Third, I would call guns a preparedness item and there are record sales! Therefore, your survival products, if you really sell any, must be inferior and the buying public has voted with their feet.

You are very good at name calling, but I do not see one refutation of a fact presented in any of the articles, just name calling- This is the hallmark trait of a troll.

This is the first article in which an unnamed source is used, THE FIRST!!! And this was done so because of the article run by Hagmann because I felt that much could be added to the conversation-

FINALLY, IT IS TIME TO CALL YOU BLUFF, HAVE YOUR DHS RELATIVES COME ON THE COMMON SENSE SHOW AND REFUTE WHAT IS WRITTEN HERE- Of course you cannot, because you have no DHS relatives- But you could be a DHS troll and I think that is likely- DHS relatives? What are their names and positions? Now, there is an unnamed source.

Finally, information was presented in this article because it is believed to be true- Everyone is encouraged to research and come to their own conclusion! That is the sole purpose behind the article. If people do their own research and then take defensive action and a life is saved, then the article did its job- Your view is dangerous because you would rather not have people consider all points of view because you are a compromised troll. If you were not, you would refute with facts!

As the survivalists say, is it better to prepare one day too late or 6 months too early?

What a load.

What you are saying is that it's an indisputable fact that people retire and move.

Funny how you didn't mention teotwawki 2012 in reference to your Marrs interview, as that is what he was eluding to.

Moving into these underground hidey holes is an evolutionary dead end. Maybe some will survive whatever it is they fear so much, but the survivors will evolve into Morlocks (aka Greys).

<http://christynine.livejournal.com/190513.html>

Quote:

".... What happens is those going underground and continuing 3D morph into what we see as the greys... they are more automatronic, lack color, and need suits... what you see as their "skin" is really a suit to try to protect them from the sun as they prevented themselves from shifting with it and so cannot tolerate it and actually according to my late CIA "uncle" were coming back here to try to fix the error they made in judgment to reverse the mutation ..."

All through history there have been stories of the earth being destroyed. Not the coming destruction but the past ones. Ruins are being found all the time dating back past what was thought to be mans becoming bright enough to build such things. Now what are the rich trying to save themselves from this time, it's the coming poleshift, caused by a planet called Nibiru. The economic collapse will be a smoke screen, because Nibiru is starting to show up, just by putting a red filter over your cameras lens and taking a picture of the sun, and with the naked eye in some locations. Please, don't believe me look it up yourself, there plenty of pictures on you tube. There are plenty of nay say'ers, like all of the 9/11 believers of the governments version.

So do a little home work if this is your first time hearing this.

Of course they're going into hiding. It's now post 12/21/12. The veil has been lifted. In fact, I'm willing to state now unequivocally that EVERYTHING the U.S. Government has said and done is a hoax.

All the way from the perpetuation of the Jesus myth to the Lincoln and Kennedy assassinations, to the Moon Landings, to 9/11, and now Sandy Hook.

All of it designed to elevate the status of the usurper class. Those people who are otherwise too incompetent, lazy or dishonest to compete in the private sector so they can generate revenue for a bogus economy off the backs of the people who support that bogus economy so that the usurper class can derive bogus livelihood

THAT, is why they're going into hiding. When the people they've exploited for so long finally catch on to the fleecing, well, suffice to say that we may experience in the economy a severe shortage of rope.

That is why they're hiding...

DO NOT STOP HERE, great story and please keep them coming. We track these stories and are posting this one.

We are covering Global and Western Corruption from both the inside and outside. As a former Army Intel and Employee of the Federal Reserve Bank and 4 others (U.S. & E.U.)in an IT Security (With DIRECT access to much of what you are hearing about) capacity I had some extremely eye opening and direct personal FIRST HAND experiences (No second hand conjecture here).

We have some great insight into this Global Economic Corruption that is finally being exposed...
KEEP THE HEAT ON THEM!

Follow us please for more info like this that all ties together in one location. Please contribute knowledge as well as strategy as we are the FEW willing to stand up and end corruption. We have been divided and conquered long enough. Time to no longer be a Debt slave to this current corrupt financial system. Let US all stand together and ignore the plots to divide us further.

I like the idea of all these “Reptilian Brain” maggots that have been taking the money (anybody’s money) and running for the hills. These people don’t realize they have to TRUST one another to survive. Lets give that one odds. I’ll take my chances with the public.

I think most are missing the point as to what is referred to as coming events. it’s not from “God, or space, or any thing else. economic collapse ... if this happens money as we know it will cease to flow. banks will close trucks will stop running stores will go empty and so on and so on. the PTB need to do nothing else but sit it out and wait. if money as we know it is no longer there and what you have is now worthless how long do you think it will take for all hell to brake out, not just with in the USA but world wide. the thought of this happening is a bit hard to even consider. but on the other hand it’s plausible. there is heavy talk of a NEW WORLD ORDER. consider this, the PTB in cover of the us government take over the hole planet. they have how many military installations world wide that have been put in place. or how about this, most of the US military is positioned out side the us. what happens if they can’t get back to US soil. with whats been going on world wide, lets be honest it doesn’t look good. I’m not sure whats going to happen or when. but I’m not just going to sit around and get caught with my pants down that’s for sure

Rats tend to leave a sinking ship. Ask Greenspan. First they inflate the bubble, and they make a ton off of that. Then they manipulate and destroy the bubble, and they make money off of that too, buceause they know when to get out. Wait a few years, buy up your assets for pennies on the dollar, then repeat. Only this time its a little different. Now we are too overpopulated to continue to play the game this way. There are too few natural resources to continue to make products and salaries etc. So there will be a massive correction. There has to be, otherwise all the money in the world wouldn't even buy you a sandwich. If we continue on the overpopulation agenda, the economy will no longer work. Of course we could go back to the gold standard, hold our elites accountable, and reset our moral value systems, but our leaders are too corrupt to do the right thing, and then we still have to get back to the overpopulation issue. The next "bubble" is the fresh water bubble. We are emptying our aquifers way faster than the Earth is naturally regenerating them. Crop failure and starvation will surely follow as companies like Nestle rush to secure private contracts for your cities community water holes. If you are willing to pay $5 for a gallon of gas, I'm sure you'd be willing to $50 for a gallon of water. So if you are evil, and want to make a buck, buy Nestle stock. Or evian or whatever.

After having seen planet X system in several dreams – vivid dreams- coming closer and closer, causing earth changes and seeing HUGE tsunamis coming both in East Australia, (from east) and from north hitting Denmark, from west hitting Portugal and many other countries I do not know the name of, it might not be a question of what has been written in a book. It might be a question of Earth making a dance in the universe, that will shake and flush and destroy the world as we know it. As said in all doomsday films; panic and fear would create a disaster and then some people who think they are the elite will rather keep the news out of the mainstream news in order for them to be able to buy up land in safe locations and buy food before the prices goes up. Many people simply do NOT want to know of any doomsday disaster. They prefer to live their every day life, watching TV and walking the dog. Any attempt to try to warn then, only makes them laugh at you, calling you a doomsday idiot. Only if the prime minister or president went public they would understand that it is not a joke. And they might not be able to relocate the entire population. The article is brilliant, because it shows what we already know – that some insiders have already moved to safe location – building up a sustainable life buying animals, weapons, food and alternative energy equipment.

Many people have not got the money to buy or even rent a place in a safe location (away from coastal areas and nuclear plants) So they accept or they keep themselves in denial. And who knows – maybe they will get a prompting from god to go for a week vacation in a tent in a safe location – when hell is loose on Earth?

May all the good hearted people be saved by GOD.

‘Tis the season that Christ came to liberate humanity from our shackles, fear included. Do not fear and constantly immitate Christ. This almost always mean do the opposite of what they’re doing. If they go into hiding, we go out. They go toward darkness, we approach the light.

Keep your eyes open for the real Savior and do not be deceived by immitations.

In the long run, they only know force and military victories are short-lived so we will triumph in the end, always.

Examples of military victories: Hitler, Russia, many others.

They can not kill us all.

Makes a lot of sense in a world that doesn’t make sense at all. Consider that there is no care about budgets, or deficits and now they want to take away our means of self defense. Countless numbers of DUMBs have been created...the writing is on the wall for those with the eyes to see.

Next at this time next year NASA has reported that we will be seeing a huge comet entering into the interior of our solar system and that this comet ISON will be brighter than the moon with a huge tail stretching across the sky. During Jan. 4 of 2014 the earth will actually be passing through the debris tail of comet ISON. To learn more about this incredible event and what potentially could occur listen to astrophysicist Prof. James McCanney's weekly radio show at; jmccanneyscience.com All shows are archived

How the details unfold is anybody's guess. But it is clear, based on our present trajectory, where we are heading. And the general "crash site" does not look survivable for the majority of the masses. It will be Americas Great Civil War of the 21st Century. Many will perish, even some from this thread/blog. Many will look back to today and think "How could I have been programmed so thoroughly; to doubt what was right in front of my eyes?" The doubters, as well as the deceivers (trolls), will be gnashing their teeth in the end.

Isn't it strange that the mayans actually predicted wide scale flooding for 2012, well in the U.K they have definitely got that one right, and its getting worse as i speak, been raining pretty much all night with England and wales and Ireland on flood alerts with much more rain to come. . Comet Ison is coming and will be a big event, it is believed to be the return of the big comet of 1860, could this comet be Planet x, heard all sorts of things about the size being 27 miles wide up to 2000 miles wide (close to moon size).....The problem i have with most peoples understanding is that they hear one item of information and and just dismiss it because it is not pasted all over the media, although Ison was reported, it is now forgot about and not reported on by most of our media....the most damning evidence of something wrong is when you start to add all the pieces of the puzzle, then you get a clearer picture of what is going on.

The core problem on earth i believe is the shifting magnetic north pole which i believe is responsible for the weird weather that is affecting every country on earth —record heat in America and now extreme snow, Heavy rain in the U.K with plenty more to come, heavy rain has already affected russia, china, Phillipines etc, volcanoes are also waking around the world, some causing evacuations, earthquakes are getting bigger and more frequent year by year, now add all this to the fact that the fbi cia nsa fema etc are relocating to high ground definitely tells me that something is coming, what we do not know is how bad this event will be and how long it will go on for.....although i said the core reason behind these events is the shifting magnetic pole, the real question is what magnetic event in our solar system is strong enough to over power our magnetic link to the sun....after all if you have a magnetic link between us (earth) and the sun then surely something else is attracting our magnetic pole to make it wander, without an external magnetic force it would not be able to break its grip on the sun, signs of increased magnetism are also present on earth because when you have magnetics you also get electricity, and this electricity is evident in the river of china turning red due to Electrolysis (electricity and irons create a red algae) . Bondai beach in Australia also turned red, another couple of pieces of information to look at are the reported findings of Planet x in the sixties and then the big silence and denials, and now we have the heating of our solar system, now i do not know about you guys but when i add all that up it tells me something is wrong...you decide

"My insider sources inform me that the same thing is happening in various federal organizations who have recently retired from the CIA, DHS, NSA and FEMA. This fact is indisputable. I have firsthand knowledge of three ex-fed officials and their families who have relocated to safety enclaves when doing so was very disruptive to their respective family's lives."

Presumably, when you make a statement like that then you could give up the names and the location of the enclaves so that your information could be verified independently. Your entire article is full of unverifiable generalizations and sounds like BS to me.

EDITOR'S NOTE: I cannot fault you for being skeptical. I encourage everyone to do their own research. I am a data and a fact driven person. I developed a statistics course for a local college- I have taught graduate students how to do the research for their master's thesis. I deal in facts. However, when Hagmann revealed inside information from his DHS source, I thought it was time to tell what I know. I am hoping that others will come out with what they and the commonalities will drive people to act. As far as naming names, if I did that, nobody would tell me anything. AS far the areas, I gave general locations. I have guaranteed a certain amount discretion in what I release. This is the nature of the beast- However, I think there is enough confirming info in the article that most should feel compelled to ask questions and do some research-let them go hide, the fools dont even understand their hiding from the face of God who is returning,. the worse place to go is deep underground because when the master returns they will call for the rocks and mountains to fall on them out of fear, while the other government fools will fight against the Lord at his return and they will all be utterly destroyed, especially the black African colonial dictator in the white house, hew will be the first to shit in his pants at his coming. this gut is the proverbial son of the devil and he will be utterly destroyed and cat into hell.

I found your statement "Airport which has an underground connected railway to the Cheyenne Mountain NORAD/Fort Carson/Peterson Air Force Base underground facilities." to be interesting but highly doubtful.

I was assigned to Space Command in Colorado Springs during the 80's and I duty took me inside the Cheyenne Mountain NORAD complex on a number of occasions. At that time, there was no such underground railway.

Given that it has been more than 25 years since I was last inside Cheyenne Mountain, I suppose anything is possible, but given the logistics of building such a railway, which would have to have built run under Colorado Springs and Denver, I doubt is such an undertaking would have been possible without everyone in the area being aware of it, and highly irritated by the eminent domain seizure of property. Of course, I could be wrong and the train station might pick-up / drop-off people right next to the Stargate.

To joe and all those who don't believe the Bible or God's Word is real, I've got a question for you. How do you explain that everything that is happening today (and plenty that has happened in the past) is written in the Bible BEFORE IT HAPPENS? I can put my daily newspaper next to my Bible these days, and they are practically word for word. Got any great ideas on this one?

Actually, I don't think I want to hear your answers to this question anyway, because my God says atheists are fools. "Anyone who says there is no God is a fool." are His exact words. I'd rather listen to my God, because the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom. I'd rather become wise then listen to fools.

@Somewhere in Montana 1) Work on the Denver airport only began in 1989 2) Look up the construction of the channel tunnel or the Seikan Tunnel 75 and 240 meters under water.

Obviously they didn't build those like subway tunnels by digging holes from the surface and requiring eminent domain. They used huge boring machines that could have been used in this case too. And if secrecy is an issue: step 1: build boring machine size hole in the ground. Step 2: bring machine in the middle of the night and drop in the hole- done, secrecy assured.

Listen all of you! Just as He came 2000 years ago and promised us His return, so also know this : He cannot lie. He said He will come back: Holy Bible 1Thess 4:16. God knows those who are His!

Everyone whose name is not found written in the Book of Life will be cast into the lake of fire. Rev 20: last verse and Rev 21, last verse again! Be not dismayed, God is NOT mocked,,whatever a man sows that shall he reap. Look folks, I am not trying to scare anyone of you out there in getting “saved”. I am telling you that Jesus IS the Way the Truth and the Life. There is great peace in that truth. He came and died on a cross for your sins. Then He rose again victorious over sin and death. Historical facts! He sent us His Holy Spirit who has been ” on the earth” yet not in bodily form as Jesus was but to lead you into all truth.

I just know for a fact that my God is real and he is looking for the repentent heart, He has His reward for those that turn to Him and that is an undeniable truth! Peace to all who can accept these truths. God loves you. It is His desire that none should perish. People send themselves to Hell, they do plenty good enough job with what comes out their mouths to get them there!

“I fully realize that unnamed sources don’t carry as much credibility as documented sources.”

You need to rephrase this sentence for honesty. “Unnamed sources don’t carry any weight.” This story could easily be 100% fiction. Name names or don’t even bother.

I doubt if rich banksters would relocate their families to bunkers when they could simply fly out of the usa before the war begins raging. Further, this would temporarily help them survive a few more months, after the war, until our New American military hunts them all down and brings them back “home” – for their own fun executions.

Look at all these comments! And you wonder why we are where we are while the PTB have gotten this far in their agenda. It’s because we are so busy trying to offer our outward views/beliefs and NOTHING is getting accomplished but THEIR forward movement. As long as we keep doing this type of thing we will never overcome. Look, just read the damn article and take pieces you want into consideration. Then either open a piece up for discussion or keep your mouth shut. Nobody cares who you know or who you're connected to. What people care about is positive forward progress. We have to come together and one of the best ways is to turn inside and seek truth there. Otherwise... this fear will keep you operating at low vibrational levels. Then you get to stay here with the misery. Misery just loves some company. You see...this isn't a war on drugs or terrorism or the other wars they always have. It is a collective war on OUR consciousness. And guess what...they are winning when you can glance at an article like this and see how everyone opposes one another in the comments. Wake. Up.

Bottom line: Live in your mind and suffer or find the truth in your heart and be open to actually helping someone else find their heart as well. Set your formed opinions aside for once. THEN...you will see the light, until then there is NO ARTICLE that is going to offer you real true comfort in moving away from fear. It's only THEN that we will be united and live the right way. Make a good solid choice for yourself and encourage others to do the same. I certainly don't want anyone to get left behind. The bright side is that we live in some exciting times! Are you viewing it as the end or a new beginning? The choice is yours.

Interesting article. But then I read the 'thoughts' of 'Paul Tarsus' and 'Marianne'; these are not so much thoughts as delusions with the normal circular logic of religion. I for one can't wait for the end of the world for no other reason than to clean the earth of these crazies ...

For all who ridicule those who speak Christ's name in here, man I feel sorry for you when you die and wake to find you're wrong. The bible says faith has been measured and portioned by God himself. It is rare when you find a person who is kind and generous without believing in the fact that they will answer for their actions. Those that don't believe, usually want to be their own God and live as they please. Whether or not this story has merit or if it doesn't, name calling isn't necessary. I'll take my chances with my faith.

Robert: Your "faith" is your choice. Your beliefs are an example of "living as you please". We all "answer for our actions" by not being able to escape our conscience. Atheists do not need a book of rules to know right from wrong, i.e., they think for themselves, and take the heat when they make mistakes. Your "die and wake up" concept shows denial of death. The only thing worse than death is no death. All values (morality) come from our mortality. It is death that gives our life meaning. An immortal being could not have anything to lose, and therefore nothing would have value.

Dave's observation that an anonymous source may be just after fame makes no sense. How can a person be famous if no one knows who he is? Anonymous commenters, do not want recognition, or they would use a name. A name can build a reputation. Obviously the unnamed source must be known to Dave and we must trust Dave is getting his info from the same source who should be given a code name. Printing whatever comes his way without knowing if the source is the same would be unprofessional and irresponsible. I assume when Dave calls a source "reliable" or "inside" he is basing his labels on past experience with the person and knowledge he cannot share. However, I would feel more confident in Dave's reporting if he were to give us a code name so we may judge also.

EDITOR'S NOTE: You hit upon exactly why I put my older intel sources into a later article (part 2) and they are on record as having said the same. Also, in Part One, Jim Marrs did address the Wall Street Execs going into hiding. Jim Marrs is not exactly an unnamed source and he has a lot of credibility.

All this “gloom & doom” preparation is good news. The co-conspirators killing off each other to cover their crimes is justice. How can anyone work for the government, concealing evidence of wrongdoing, and have a clean conscience? The more the corruption is exposed, the harder it is for the public to keep supporting their rulers. The sooner they stop believing in the myth that government protects or provides, the better. We will self govern. We must stop giving our power to others, sacrificing ourselves to the illusion of the so-called “common good”.

this info is attached in Fear thus it is an older timeline of information still being repeated by The Cabal who do actually have something to fear as they can't keep the power that they once had over the Human Race – The dark magic is not going to work anymore as the Frequency has now changed due to moving into the high 5th Dimension frequency – They run because it is the end of their world and just the beginning of ours – Good things will manifest in 2013 <3 – remember everyone is on there on TIMELINE path – and some off those people have created fear in their life – please don't let them enroll you into their truths as they are not everyones truths. There elite are running scared into hiding because their reign and power grab is over. It is important to not buy into the fear propaganda that the alternative media often spews around carelessly. Bankers and state officials across the globe over the past couple years have been resigning and/or arrested in unprecedented droves. There is no fiscal cliff coming, nor impending economic doom... its all a farce...an illusion they want to attain leverage with. Fact of the matter is there is more than enough money (gold) to go around to everyone on the planet...not excluding even one individual. When NESARA (National Economic Security and Reformation Act) and the One People's Public Trust Filings are rolled out (www.peoplestrust1776.com), it will be the new beginning we've been waiting for, for decades...and even centuries. Good has won. It is over for the cabal. This is a time to celebrate. Like I said...do not let these fear mongerers (whether innocent or not) dictate a false reality, under the guise of "The Powers That Be" still having ultimate authority...which couldnt be further from the truth. They are done...it is over for them. Humanity are the victors. Finally.

Goldman Sachs has acquired control of several European countries (via debt)and has a multitude of agents in the U.S. government (including BO, Bush, Paulsen, and 50+ others). Their funding has been available from the hiding of funds from the auctions of Treasury securities (owed to the government) done by the FRBNY and transferred to the (unknown) owners of the FR BOG. These funds are never audited or reported. Ref. <http://www.scribd.com/doc/115919607/FUNDING-OUR-OWN-SELF-DESTRUCTION>
