Tamiel

Tamiel (or Tumiel; Aramaic: ܬܡܝܐܠ, Greek: Ταμιάλ), also spelled Tâmîêl, is a fallen angel, the fifth mentioned of the 20 watcher leaders of the 200 fallen angels in the Book of Enoch. His name is usually translated as "perfection of God" (the combination of tamiym and El-God) but Tamiel is also called either Kasdeja (also Kasdaye, from Heb. כַּסְדְּיָהּ — "inhabitant of Chaldea[1]") or Kasyade (prob. compd. of כַּסָּה kasah — "to conceal" + יָד yad — "hand, power"; lit. "covered hand", "hidden power") in the Book of Enoch, Chapter 69. Michael Knibb lists the translation of Tamiel as "God is Perfect" or "Perfection of God." Tamiel taught "the children of men all of the wicked strikes of spirits, [the strikes of] demons, and the strikes of the embryo in the womb so that it may pass away (abortion), and [the strikes of the soul], the bites of the serpent, and the strikes which befall through the noontide heat, [which is called] the son of the serpent named Taba'et (meaning male)" during the days of Noah, not the days of Jared.
