

מְשִׁיחַ

Messiah noun מְשִׁיחַ

<http://www.morfix.co.il/en/messiah>

Messiach - An angel invoked in magical operations in connection with the invocation of water and hyssop. The invocant is advised to resite the versies of the Psalms 6, 67, 64 and 102.

<http://www.angelicreflections.com/angel-Dictionary-M.asp>

Messiach An angel invoked in magical operations. He is named in connection with the invocation "of the water and of the hyssop." It is advised to recite versicles out of Psalms 6, 67, 64, and 102.

Messiah Equated with Soter, Christ, Savior, God. With Metatron, Messiah is designated a cherub and guardian angel of Eden armed with a flaming sword. He is also the angel of the Great Council, angel of the Lord, a sefira in the Briatic world and analogous to the Logos or Holy Ghost. Paul in Colossians 1:16 and Ephesians 1:21 has Messiah in mind when he speaks of the angel "raised above all principalities and powers, virtues, dominations."

<http://www.angelfire.com/journal/cathbodua/Angels/Mangels.html>