

Strong's Concordance

Paltiel: "deliverance of God," two Israelites

Original Word: פִּלְטִיָּאל

Part of Speech: Proper Name Masculine

Transliteration: Paltiel

Phonetic Spelling: (pal-tee-ale')

Short Definition: Paltiel

<http://biblehub.com/hebrew/6409.htm>

In the Book of ENOCH, the seventh from ADAM, the Watchers who had been sent to Earth to watch and pray for mankind, instead taught them abortion, weapon making and war, face painting and magic and fornicated with them. They came and begged ENOCH to pray for them, that GOD would have mercy on them. Their names as well as those of the faithful are listed therein...

King Solomon's experiences confronting demons are related, of each of whom he asks his name as well as the name of the angel that can overpower him. Asmodeus answers that he is frustrated by Raphael, the archangel; another demon answers Paltiel is his most feared antagonist; a third, Uriel, etc. In Mark's Gospel 5:9; Christ does this as well. (Jesus) "...asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many." Then he cast them all out.

<http://www.howarddavidjohnson.com/Angel-art.htm>