Dear Ankita

I know that much has been said about your kundli. However, since i opened your chart it is my duty to add my 2 cents worth. In my humble opinion, we keep suffering in our lives due to some past karma not knowing what that karma is. You have a curse of father in your chart (Su aspected by Sa and Ra by Graha Drishti). Tarunji, can you please elaborate...was I not good to my father in the past? That Su rules your 7th house and hence the suffering in your marriage. The remedy for that needs to be done for sure since that karma will continue to chase you till fulfilled. I would suggest being nice to your father and taking care of him for static remedy. My father loves me the most but I used to behave very foolishly with my father...my step mom would not like my father being close to me so I used to purposely misbehave with him just to make her happy..I was such an idiot. In the last 7-8 years I have come to realize how well my father has brought me up by instilling the right values. He is wealthy and he could have spoilt me a lot, but he always taught me the value of hard work and intellectual ability. I have improved my relationship with him a lot, but I will work harder on thisThe lord of the house is in the 11th but the karaka is well placed in 9th with the 9th lord. So I would suggest worship Sri Vishnu with the mantra "Om Vishnave Namah". How many times? Sa is your lagna lord however is really badly placed in the 8th house with the evil 11th lord and maraka, i wonder why you are wearing a neelam. My mother-in-law made me wear it. Her knowledge of astrology is not very deep but she always asks everyone to wear gemstones . Diamond is great for you (9th lord strong and also vargottama).

Now to timing. I dont use Vimsottari seeded from Moon in the cases where Moon is in 3rd, 8th or 11th cause as per my Guru it should be utpanna Vimshottari. So using that dasa your mother died in Ju-Sa. Sa as you know is involved in the curse and aspacts the debilitated moon in Navamsa along with Ma. The moon being debilitated in the navamsa shows the sufferings that you have undergone in your life with Mother figures. It is good at the starts and then turns pear shaped. (debilitated planets in Navamsa can have that effect). IS there any remedy for this? Women are closest to their mothers with whom they can share all their worries, but I've never had that. Since before my marriage I've tried to build a mother-daughter relationship with my mum-in-law, and it was good till I got married because she had limited authority over me. She will not change..what can I do? right now you are running Sa - Ve by this dasa, now ve is the lord of your UL so your marriage. as pointed out by Avam earlier, there is a papakartari on that venus causing bandhana. the 4th lord and 9th lord from the UL are causing the papakartari (mother and father in law). and i believe the situation would have worsened July 2007 onwards. From July this year the pratyantar of Sa has started that sits in the 8th house, maraka to the 7th, forcing you to think on the lines of getting out of the marriage. Since Ve is the antardasa lord, he is also the 7th lord from Moon and placed in the 7th house, so you are feeling the bandhana of the papakartari at this time. The situation continues for a year from now. I can be patient if this is a passing phase, but what is the impact on my remaining life? Tarunji, please tell me the truth, if this is a lifelong problem I will have to reconcile myself instead of fighting it.

Now lets come to the remedies.

I would suggest that Neelam to be parted with in the first place. Worshipping deepa Laxmi or bagulamukhi will alliviate the ill-effects of that moon. I would tend to lean towards deepa-lakshmi since Ve is also your Ishta Devata planet. How shall I do this..by praying to their image kept in my temple and/or saying specific mantras? To come out of this parakartari effects of Sa and Su around your husband and your marriage, you will need to do krishna worship. 1. chant 21 times Sri Krishna Sharnam mamah. there after 3 malas of Klim Krishna Klim. 3 malas means 3 X 108 times? this will help you immensely though these bandhanas are slow in breaking but will not let your marriage break. Thank you Tarunji. Does my husband's Mangal dosh need any remedies?*
